INTRODUCING

The Oaks, BN7

4 Bedrooms | 3 Bathroom | 3-4 Reception Rooms | 1819 Sq Ft

The Oaks is set within the tranquil and elevated grounds of the former Lewes Racecourse, an iconic location with roots dating back to the 1700s. The final race was held in 1964, but the area remains steeped in history and character. Today, this elevated setting offers sweeping countryside views and a wonderfully peaceful environment while remaining within easy reach of all the conveniences of town life.

The location is ideal for outdoor enthusiasts, with direct access to a network of scenic footpaths, bridleways, and cycle routes leading into the heart of the South Downs National Park. Whether you're an avid walker, cyclist, or nature lover, the surrounding landscape offers endless opportunities to explore.

Despite its semi-rural charm, the area enjoys excellent transport connections. Road links are efficient for travel into and out of Lewes, and local bus routes are readily accessible. Lewes mainline railway station offers direct train services to London Victoria (in just over an hour) and Brighton (in under 20 minutes), making this location ideal for commuters seeking both tranquility and convenience.

Formerly part of the historic Indicator Building, The Oaks is a beautifully presented and generously proportioned detached family residence, offering a rare opportunity to own a piece of Lewes history while enjoying modern comfort and versatile living. Situated in a highly sought-after semi-rural setting just outside the town, this unique home blends architectural heritage with contemporary functionality, creating an ideal environment for family life, entertaining, and peaceful retreat.

The Oaks holds a fascinating link to its past as part of the original Indicator Building, which historically stood as a striking 4 to 5-storey structure displaying race results. There is exciting potential for the property to be restored or enhanced to its former height, offering an exceptional opportunity for those looking to preserve and celebrate its rich heritage.

On the ground floor, the accommodation is both flexible and spacious, designed to cater to a variety of lifestyles and needs. At the heart of the home is a large dual-aspect living room, flooded with natural light from windows to both the front and rear, and featuring a charming wood-burning stove—perfect for cosy winter evenings. French doors lead directly from the living room to the private rear garden, seamlessly connecting the indoor and outdoor spaces. A set of sliding doors opens into an adjoining reception room, which can be used as an extension of the main living space or closed off to serve as a quiet reading room, children's playroom, or formal sitting area.

The large kitchen and breakfast room is a true hub of the home, thoughtfully designed with contemporary fitted units, sleek granite worktops, and ample space for dining and socialising. A walk-in pantry adds practicality and character, while windows overlooking the rear garden bring in plenty of daylight. A glazed door leads from the kitchen to a rear terrace, ideal for summer breakfasts or alfresco dining. Off the main hallway, you'll find a well-appointed utility room offering further storage and laundry space, as well as a convenient ground floor WC.

A third reception room on the ground floor provides even more flexibility and could be utilised as a home office, studio, media room, or ground-floor bedroom for multigenerational living.

Ascending the stairs, the first-floor landing leads to four generously sized double bedrooms, each offering unique views in various directions. From different rooms, you can enjoy far-reaching panoramic vistas of the historic Old Race Course, the rolling hills of the South Downs, and the rooftops of picturesque Lewes. The principal bedroom benefits from its own en-suite shower room, while a well-equipped family bathroom serves the remaining bedrooms.

The outdoor space is equally appealing, with thoughtfully landscaped front and rear gardens. Mature trees and established planting create a private and serene atmosphere, and the main rear garden is predominantly laid to lawn, offering ample room for children to play or for gardening enthusiasts to indulge their passion. A paved patio terrace provides a delightful area for entertaining, barbecuing, or simply relaxing in the sunshine. Driveways to both sides of the property provide off-street parking for multiple vehicles.
