These few, exclusive terraces which cluster at the back of St Nicholas Church are sought after by professionals, investors and small families, and this property has pride of place with a secret footpath at the end of it leading to the Church, its gardens - and a popular primary school and playground. Outside looks very traditional, but has discreet double glazing, and inside 97.30m² (1047.31 sq. ft.) deliver bright, inviting rooms with a contemporary finish.

The ground floor has been skilfully opened up to create a big, bright living/dining room with versatile floorspace ready to work, rest or play. Of classic proportions with high grade oak flooring underfoot, sunshine streams through the large window at the front and back, there's a wood burning stove to enjoy and a deep alcove keeps the room clutter free.

Downstairs, the bright and cheerful kitchen breakfast room has plenty of space for a family table by the bi-folding doors which open to bring in the sociable patio, raised to catch the sun. A stylish mix of wood and steel delivers ample storage and practical working surfaces and it's good to go with a touch induction hob beneath a hood, a grill/combi and fan oven in a tower, plumbing for a dishwasher and designated space for a fridge freezer. There's also a spacious utility room tucked away.

Outside, the spacious garden is an ideal spot for friends to meet before exploring our exciting coastal resort. Child and pet secure behind walls, this charming oasis of calm at the heart of the city has ample space for a sociable, al fresco lifestyle. The raised dining area is surrounded by mature beds planted for all year interest, and it is easy to maintain so you'll have more time to enjoy it.

Back inside, there's a gleaming bathroom, ideal for visitors, which has space for both a bath with a shower attachment and a separate, walk in shower with a drench head.

Upstairs, the high ceilings continue on the first floor where the guest bedroom is a light and airy double used as a comfortable home office big enough to share – and with lower buildings behind, it isn't directly overlooked. At the front of the house, the principal bedroom is a restful retreat with plenty of space and character of its own. There are alcoves for wardrobes and next door, the contemporary shower room is painted in the colours of the sea.
