

Forsdene Walk

Coalway, Coleford, GL16 7JZ

£340,000

A beautifully presented detached bungalow, ideally positioned on the edge of woodland in the popular village of Coalway. The property offers spacious and versatile accommodation, including a generous lounge, a stylish modern bathroom, two well-proportioned bedrooms, and a large kitchen/dining room ideal for everyday living and entertaining.

A standout feature of the home is the converted garage, now forming a self-contained annexe. This useful space comprises a bedroom/living area along with an additional room already fitted with plumbing, offering excellent potential for a bathroom or utility room.

Coalway itself is a well-served village, offering two convenience stores, a primary school, and regular bus links, along with access to scenic woodland walks. The nearby market town of Coleford, just approximately one mile away, provides a wider range of amenities including supermarkets, doctors' surgeries, dentists, independent shops, and a selection of cafés.
