A Fresh Class of Living - Contemporary Townhouses Ready to Move Into

These newly completed townhouses don't just tick boxes - they raise the bar. Set within an exclusive development on the edge of Macclesfield town centre, this collection of four-bedroom homes delivers clean modern design, impressive space across three floors, and private outdoor areas that genuinely feel like an extension of your living space.

Bright, open-plan layouts, high-quality finishes, and thoughtful details throughout make these homes ideal for professionals, families, or anyone wanting modern living without compromise. With the train station and town centre within walking distance, you're plugged straight into convenience without losing the peace and privacy of a tucked-away setting.
