

Grassholme Way, Eaglescliffe, TS16 0GB

Immaculately presented, extended and transformed to showroom standards, this three bedroom detached house is situated on the Hunters Green Development in Eaglescliffe.

Ground floor accommodation includes hall with composite entrance door, high gloss tiled floor and downstairs WC. The spacious lounge offers double doors to the rear garden and the Karndean herringbone flooring continues through to the beautiful, newly refitted kitchen/dining room creating a seamless flow. Wonderfully planned and no expense has been spared to provide a modern, stylish kitchen with granite worktops, Belfast sink, island with induction hob and waterfall sides. Also included are many integrated appliances including double oven, dishwasher and fridge/freezer. Elegant, new Bifold doors lead out to the rear garden.

To the master bedroom find en-suite with attractively tiled floor and walls, large shower cubicle with niche gold fittings and towel radiator. Two further bedrooms are provided and a stunning refitted family bathroom neutrally tiled to complement the black fittings and freestanding bath with pillar tap/shower. Gas centrally heating and UPVC windows (renewed in 2024) complete this stunning home.

Externally, to the front of the property is a lawned garden and driveway for parking of multiple vehicles. The garage has been converted to extend the kitchen and provide storage. To the rear of the property is a low maintenance lawned garden. The property will appeal to both young professionals and families due to its convenient location near reputable secondary and primary schools and easy access to the A66, Allens West Train Station and Teesside International Airport.
