Henley

Henley village offers a tranquil, countryside setting while being within easy reach of Ipswich and its array of shopping, dining, and recreational facilities. A mainline station provides a direct link to London, with a journey time of around 65 minutes. The village itself fosters a strong community spirit, featuring a community center, football field, and a local farm shop. Convenient transport links, including a bus stop and nearby garage, further enhance the appeal of this location. Henley Preschool is just around the corner, along with the local high school bus stopping a short distance away, making this the perfect location for families looking for a semi-rural lifestyle.
