

Rock Estates

Dutch Quarter Apartments West Stockwell Street, £900 Per month

Situated within the popular Dutch Quarter Apartments in the heart of Colchester city centre, this modern ground floor apartment offers stylish and convenient living just moments from local shops, restaurants, and transport links.

The property features a bright open-plan living area with a modern fitted kitchen including integrated white goods, a well-proportioned double bedroom, and a contemporary bathroom with shower over bath. There is also the added benefit of a small private balcony, providing a pleasant outdoor space rarely found in such a central location.

Please note, there is no parking available, however the property's prime city centre position ensures easy access to all amenities and public transport options.

