Tucked away in a quiet cul-de-sac in the charming village of Kirby-le-Soken, this spacious three-bedroom detached chalet offers comfortable, flexible living—perfect for families. The property features multiple reception rooms, a well-equipped kitchen, a ground-floor WC, and a generous master bedroom with a modern en-suite shower room. Upstairs, you'll find two further double bedrooms and a family bathroom.

Outside, the home offers plenty of off-road parking on a smart resin driveway, an integrated garage, and a good-sized rear garden complete with a patio area ideal for outdoor entertaining.

Briarfields enjoys a great location, just a short stroll from the popular Red Lion and The Ship pubs, the local village store, and Kirby Recreation Ground. Scenic walks to the stunning Hamford Backwaters are also nearby.
