Cherry Hinton

Cherry Hinton is a vibrant and highly sought-after suburb located just southeast of Cambridge. This thriving community offers an excellent blend of traditional charm and modern convenience. At its heart lies a bustling High Street, home to a diverse range of shops, pubs, restaurants, and takeaways, as well as leisure and healthcare facilities. For larger shopping needs, a major Tesco supermarket is conveniently located off Yarrow Road.

Families are well-catered for, with two primary schools in the area that feed into the well-regarded Netherhall secondary school. The suburb is equally popular with professionals and commuters due to its exceptional connectivity. Addenbrooke's Hospital is just 1.5 miles away, Cambridge railway station is 2 miles, and the city centre is within 3.5 miles. Excellent bus links and quick access to the A14 make Cherry Hinton an ideal choice for those commuting into Cambridge or further afield.

Despite being so close to the city, Cherry Hinton maintains a distinct identity with a welcoming, community-oriented atmosphere. With its outstanding amenities, educational facilities, and convenient location, it's no surprise this suburb continues to attract those seeking a balance between city proximity and a traditional neighborhood feel.
