Kedington is an historic, well-served village just over the Cambridgeshire border into Suffolk, about 18 miles from the city edge with a number of good commuter roads in. The compact and charming village centre has an excellent range of day-today facilities including an OFSTED 'Outstanding' primary school, a post office and shop, mini supermarket, library, GP surgery, butcher, community centre, hairdresser, recreation ground and pub. Large supermarkets and more comprehensive shopping can be found in Haverhill (2 miles). Newmarket is 13 miles north west and the historic market town of Clare is 5 miles east.
