Asking Price £1,100,000 Freehold

Property Description

Built in the 1930's, this substantial detached family home is set back from the road behind a "Carriage" driveway. The property has been a lovely family home for over 30 years and offers a flexible layout of the accommodation. The house has been well maintained, is well presented, and has great potential to extend/alter, subject to planning permission. The garage has recently been extended and reroofed to accommodate a modern large family saloon and has an electric up and over door. The accommodation is complimented by an approx. 50m x 15m secluded rear garden, with brick built outbuilding 5.5m x 2.5m suitable for a studio or home office, metal gazebo and two garden sheds (one including an outside toilet). There are solar panels fitted, that - the seller advises - generate an average income of £1,000-00 per annum. Within a short walk of the mainline station and High Street. A selection of sought-after schools, including St Olaves, Newstead Wood, and Warren Road, are all within walking distance. Viewing is highly recommended.
