Arundel is a highly sought-after historic market town nestled along the banks of the River Arun, offering a charming blend of heritage, countryside and modern amenities. The town centre, located just 0.1 miles from the property, provides a wide selection of independent cafés, restaurants, traditional pubs, boutique shops and convenience stores, catering well to day-to-day needs and leisure pursuits. Renowned for its rich history, Arundel is home to the iconic medieval Arundel Castle, along with a museum, open-air lido and the popular Arundel Wetland Centre. The town is surrounded by beautiful scenery, including a picturesque lake, riverside walks and countryside trails, with opportunities for boat hire and outdoor activities, making it ideal for nature lovers and walkers. For commuters, the property is well positioned with easy access to the A27 and A259, offering straightforward travel to Chichester, Worthing, Brighton and the wider South Coast. Arundel railway station is approximately 0.9 miles away and provides direct services to London, making it an excellent choice for those commuting to the capital. In addition, several nearby bus stops offer regular services throughout Arundel and to neighbouring towns including Littlehampton, Chichester and Worthing.
