This recently refurbished double-bedroom apartment occupies the top floor of a charming Victorian terrace house and is immaculately presented throughout.

The property is accessed via the first floor, where there is additional space for coats and shoes, before leading to the split-level accommodation above. The living room enjoys an east-facing aspect and features a double-glazed window set within the eaves, along with a useful storage cupboard and an additional cupboard housing the water tank.

The refurbished kitchen is fitted with a light range of base units and provides space for a freestanding cooker, washing machine and fridge freezer. The re-fitted shower room features a modern white suite with part-tiled walls.

The bedroom benefits from fitted cupboards and a pleasant west-facing aspect, offering a bright and comfortable living space.

Further benefits include low outgoings, a long lease, and an allocated off-road parking space located to the rear of the property, accessible via the communal hallway. The property is sold with a share of the freehold and is ready to move into.
