Littlehampton is a seaside town located on the south coast of England in the county of West Sussex. Situated at the mouth of the River Arun, it is known for its attractive beaches, historic harbour, and traditional seaside charm.

The town offers a mix of leisure, tourism, and maritime activities, with highlights including the award-winning East Beach, the iconic East Beach Café designed by Thomas Heatherwick, and the family-friendly Harbour Park amusement area.

Littlehampton also boasts a scenic riverside, a working marina, and easy access to the South Downs National Park. It is well-connected by road and rail, making it a popular destination for both visitors and residents seeking a coastal lifestyle.

Tenure: Permission to place a park home on a designated site is by written agreement, in accordance with the 1983 Act. The permitted length of the agreement can vary from site to site, and we therefore strongly recommend that you engage legal representation before committed to the purchase of a park home.
