SITUATION

Black Dog is a small Mid Devon village situated in the heart of Mid Devon surrounded by rolling Devonshire Countryside, benefitting from a village hall, public house and a small Church at Washford Pyne. The larger villages of Witheridge to the north and Morchard Bishop to the west are approximately 4 miles away offering local facilities such as village shops, primary schools and other public houses. The larger towns of South Molton to the north, Tiverton to the east and Crediton to the south are both approximately 7 miles away and offer a larger range of shops and services including banks, super markets, cottage hospitals, dental surgery's, secondary schools, leisure centres and golf courses.

Road link is via the A377 or the North Devon Link Road, which can easily be accessed at South Molton and Tiverton. Barnstaple, North Devon's regional centre, and the Cathedral and University city of Exeter both offer the wide range of shopping, amenities and facilities one would expect from the county's principal town and city. Tiverton, the M5 motorway at Junction 27 and Tiverton Parkway station, which provides a fast Intercity rail link to London Paddington, are both approximately forty-five minutes drive. There is also an international airport at Exeter.

There are excellent recreational and sporting facilities in the area with a range of Leisure Centres at South Molton, Tiverton, Crediton and Barnstaple, near-by tennis courts and clubs, local rugby, football and cricket clubs, fishing in the rivers Taw and Torridge, further near-by golf courses at Libbaton, High Bullen and Down St Mary, excellent walking and riding in all directions, racecourses at Haldon Exeter and Newton Abbot, and sailing and watersports on North Devons scenic and rugged coastline, being approximately three-quarters of an hours drive.
