Price Guide £265,000

A SEMI-DETACHED FAMILY HOME situated in a quiet Mid Devon village offering well laid out THREE BEDROOM AND TWO RECEPTION ROOM accommodation including a Kitchen with separate Utility Room, all with scope for further extension and improvement (subject to pp) with AMPLE PARKING, DETACHED GARAGE AND VERY LARGE GARDENS

SITUATION

1 Beechlea is situated in the centre of Ashreigney, a small village set in the heart of rural Devon offering local facilities including a village hall and a church whilst the nearby town of Chulmleigh offers a wider range of facilities and amenities including a good range of local shops including a general store, a florist, bakery, dairy, newsagent, hairdressers etc, along with both an excellent primary school and secondary school/community college, health centre, dental surgery, Post Office, churches, library, two public houses, a community run Sports Centre and a short 18 hole golf course. The market town of South Molton to the north and Crediton to the south both offer a more comprehensive range of facilities and the local railway station at Eggesford, 2 miles, provides a rail link between Exeter and Barnstaple. Road link is via the A377 or the North Devon Link Road, which can be easily accessed at South Molton. Barnstaple, North Devon's regional centre, and the Cathedral and University City of Exeter both offer the wide range of shopping, amenities and facilities one would expect from the county's principal town and city. Tiverton, the M5 motorway at Junction 27 and Tiverton Parkway station, providing a fast Intercity rail link to London Paddington, are both approximately forty-five minutes drive. There is also an international airport at Exeter.

There are excellent recreational and sporting facilities in the area with a range of Leisure Centres at Tiverton, Crediton and Barnstaple, near-by tennis courts and clubs, local rugby, football and cricket clubs, fishing in the rivers Taw and Torridge, further near-by golf courses at Libbaton, High Bullen and Down St Mary, excellent walking and riding in all directions, racecourses at Haldon Exeter and Newton Abbot, and sailing and water sports on North Devon's scenic and rugged coastline, being approximately three-quarters of an hours drive.

DESCRIPTION

1 Beechlea is a modern semi-detached house situated on the edge of the Mid Devon village of Ashreigney allowing lovely rural views across open farmland. The property dates back to the 1950's and is of modern brick and block construction under a tiled roof with rendered and colour washed elevations and uPVC double glazed windows and doors throughout. Internally the well laid out accommodation is arranged over two floors and briefly comprises an Entrance Hall, a Sitting Room, a Dining Room, a Kitchen with separate Utility Room, a Garden Room and a Cloakroom, whilst on the First Floor leading off the Landing there are three Bedrooms, a Bathroom and a Cloakroom. The house also benefits from an oil fired Rayburn for cooking, room heating and supplying domestic hot water when lit and although in reasonable condition the property would now benefit from a programme of general modernisation including updating the Kitchen and Bathroom suites. Outside the house is approached from the road giving access to a spacious front garden and off-road parking area allowing enough space for several cars and access into the detached Single Garage. At the rear of the house there is a larger area of lawned garden which is bordered by mature hedging and wooden fencing creating a great space for children and pets with an aviary and sheds to one side.
