This bright two double bedroom apartment, set within a well maintained portered period mansion block, Romney House, is available for lease through Prime London.

The property offers 508 sq ft (47.2 sqm) of contemporary, bright and versatile living space. The reception room provides space for relaxing and dining, with large windows allowing plenty of natural light. The separate kitchen is well appointed with modern fittings and ample storage.

Both bedrooms are well proportioned, and the property is completed by a well presented bathroom finished to a modern standard.

Residents benefit from porter services and the character and security of a classic Westminster building. The property is surrounded by a selection of shops, cafés, and local amenities catering to all needs.

Victoria Station is within close proximity, providing excellent transport links across London.
