Mapps Estates are delighted to bring to the market this substantial detached four bedroom family home set on the hillside affording far-reaching views across Hythe to the Romney Marsh and bay. The accommodation is immaculately presented and well-proportioned throughout, the ground floor comprising an entrance lobby opening to a welcoming reception hall, a cloakroom, spacious living room opening onto a sun terrace, a large kitchen/diner opening onto a charming covered patio, and a separate utility room, with four bedrooms, a family bathroom and an en suite bathroom to the first floor. The property is set in beautifully landscaped front and rear gardens, and enjoys a double garage and ample off-road parking for up to six cars or space for a caravan/motorhome if required. An early viewing of this impressive family home comes highly recommended.

Located in an elevated position affording westerly views of the surrounding countryside and within walking distance of Hythe town centre, which offers a good selection of independent shops together with Waitrose, Aldi and Sainsbury's stores. The historic Royal Military Canal runs through the centre of the town together with Hythe's unspoilt seafront promenade both providing pleasant walks and recreational facilities. The town centre also offers doctors' surgeries, dentists and a library. Primary schooling is located just off Hythe's green with secondary schooling being available in nearby Saltwood and both boys' and girls' grammar schools in Folkestone. The M20 Motorway, Channel Tunnel Terminal and Port of Dover are also easily accessed by car. High speed rail services are available from Folkestone West approximately 15 minutes away by car giving fast services to London St Pancras in just over 50 minutes. The area boasts several golf courses including the Hythe Imperial, Sene Valley and Etchinghill. The Cathedral City of Canterbury is approximately 30 minutes away by car and offers cultural facilities such as the Cathedral and the Marlowe Theatre.
