Mapps Estates are delighted to bring to the market this immaculately-presented and well-appointed four bedroom detached residence set in a cul-de-sac location enjoying an elevated position and westerly aspect with far-reaching views of the surrounding countryside. The generous and well-proportioned accommodation comprises a reception hall, cloakroom, spacious living room, separate dining room opening to the rear garden, a kitchen/breakfast room and utility room to the ground floor, while upstairs is the master bedroom and en suite shower room, three further bedrooms and a bathroom. The property is complemented by well-tended front and rear gardens and boasts a double garage and large driveway for up to six cars. An early viewing comes highly recommended.

Located in an elevated position affording westerly views of the surrounding countryside and within walking distance of Hythe town centre, which offers a good selection of independent shops together with Waitrose, Aldi and Sainsbury's stores. The historic Royal Military Canal runs through the centre of the town together with Hythe's unspoilt seafront promenade both providing pleasant walks and recreational facilities. The town centre also offers doctors' surgeries, dentists and a library. Primary schooling is located just off Hythe's green with secondary schooling being available in nearby Saltwood and both boys' and girls' grammar schools in Folkestone. The M20 Motorway, Channel Tunnel Terminal and Port of Dover are also easily accessed by car. High speed rail services are available from Folkestone West approximately 15 minutes away by car giving fast services to London St Pancras in just over 50 minutes. The area boasts several golf courses including the Hythe Imperial, Sene Valley and Etchinghill. The Cathedral City of Canterbury is approximately 30 minutes away by car and offers cultural facilities such as the Cathedral and the Marlowe Theatre.
