, St. Leonards-On-Sea, TN38 0PH

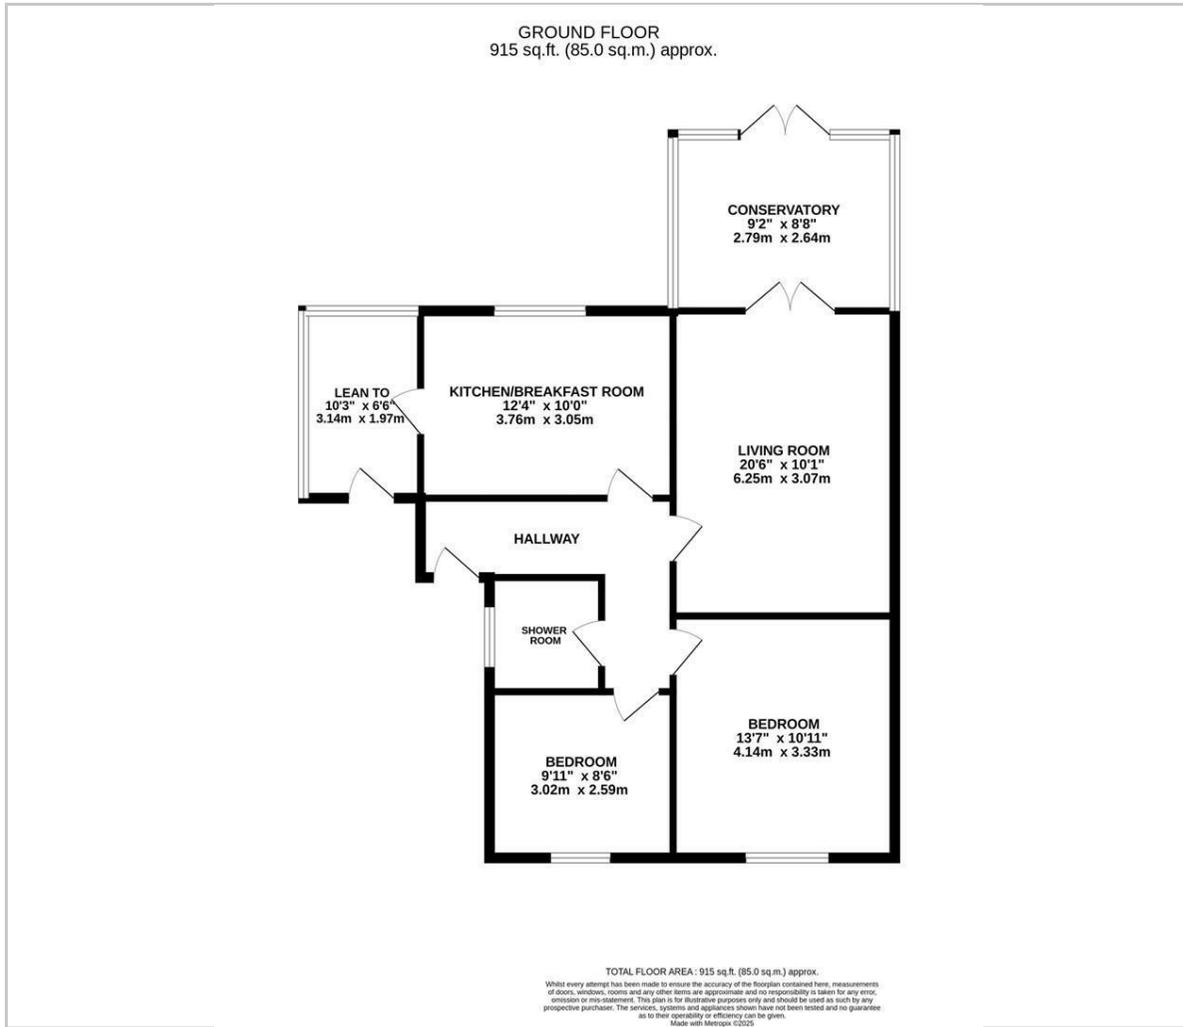

The property: a spacious two double bedroom semi-detached bungalow with a garage and parking. The accommodation is extremely well presented throughout comprising a large living room with log burner, conservatory and a separate kitchen with ample storage which leads through the utility room and side access. There are two bedrooms and a family bathroom with large enclosed shower unit. Externally the rear garden is enclosed with stunning sea views and the front garden is mainly laid to lawn with garage and off road parking for one car. Available mid-May.

The location: situated in a quiet cul-de-sac and ideally positioned close by to good primary and secondary schools, local shops and West St Leonards railway station which enjoys connections to London stations.
