

A superb, remodelled, first-floor apartment within the prestigious "The Old Mill" development. It is located a short walk over the town's historic bridge to St Ives town centre (2 min walk) and a short distance from main road links (inc. A14, M11 and A1), the Guided Busway to Cambridge (5 min walk) and direct train line to London and the north (10 min drive). Multiple opportunities for countryside walks also lie on the doorstep. This sought-after development boasts a secure entry system, lift, an allocated parking space, visitors' parking, two communal gardens with river frontage, and a secure bike store. Situated by the river Great Ouse, there are views from all rooms over the river and open fields. This apartment has been thoughtfully remodelled to take advantage of these views, creating a larger open-plan kitchen and living accommodation with its high ceilings and original features, including tall double doors and a Juliette balcony, which are unique to this apartment. The kitchen has been refitted with granite work surfaces and is equipped with plenty of storage, under-unit lighting, a matching island and high-quality integrated appliances including a microwave oven combi, a fridge and a freezer. The property also features a bright double bedroom with fitted wardrobes, a modernised bathroom as well as upgraded smart heating system, and wooden floors.
