“A beautifully balanced blend of period charm and modern luxury in one of Cardiff’s most desirable districts.”

Perfectly positioned in the highly sought-after Heath area, this beautifully presented three-bedroom semi-detached home offers everything a modern family or professional couple could wish for — style, space, and superb connectivity.

The current owners have thoughtfully upgraded the property, creating a stunning open-plan kitchen and dining space with quartz work surfaces, breakfast bar, walk-in pantry, and bi-folding doors that open directly onto the south-facing garden. The home also benefits from a new roof, updated electrics, and a modern Ideal Logic combination boiler, ensuring comfort and efficiency for years to come.

Set within easy reach of Heath Park and the University Hospital of Wales, and benefiting from excellent public transport links, highly regarded schools and the excellent local amenities, this home perfectly combines convenience with lifestyle appeal.
