

91 Richmond Road, Bristol, BS6 5EP

£925 PCM

This beautifully presented, recently decorated one-bedroom partially furnished home is ideal for a quiet single occupier seeking a peaceful and respectful living environment. While the home benefits from its own private entrance, it forms part of a larger family house that also includes meditation studios, and as such is only suitable for quiet solo tenants who value tranquillity and are mindful of the home they share.

The property comprises:

A spacious living area with ample natural light

A modern kitchen complete with white goods

A generous double bedroom furnished with a double bed

A private en-suite shower room
