PROPERTY DETAILS

This charming and deceptively spacious, stone-built, mid-terrace property, boasts three double bedrooms and offers versatile living accommodation spread over three floors. Perfectly suited for first-time buyers or growing families, this delightful home provides far more than initially meets the eye. Internal viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate its generous space, stylish interiors and welcoming charm. If you're seeking a larger-than-average terrace home at an affordable price, this could be the perfect match.

Upon entering, you'll find a warm and inviting sitting room that flows seamlessly into the kitchen. The kitchen features access to a separate utility room and a convenient ground-floor cloakroom, with direct access to the enclosed rear yard.

The first floor offers two double bedrooms plus a large walk in storage cupboard, while the second floor houses an additional spacious double bedroom and a beautifully appointed four-piece house bathroom.

Outside, the property benefits from a large, sunny, rear yard enclosed with timber fencing, ideal for relaxing or entertaining. The property also offers solar panels to both the front and rear of the property which reduces consumption of electricity energy during the day. It also gives the ability to sell unused energy back into the electric network.

Located on Queen Street, this home enjoys a prime position in the heart of the village, just steps away from excellent amenities including a highly regarded primary school, a general store, post office, pubs, restaurants and a superb recreational park. With bus links right on the doorstep, you'll enjoy quick and easy access to nearby towns and villages, as well as larger business hubs in Lancashire and North and West Yorkshire.
