Spacious Second Floor Apartment in the Heart of Scarborough Town Centre

Occupying the top floor of an attractive period building in the centre of Scarborough, this exceptionally spacious one-bedroom apartment offers beautifully proportioned accommodation, combining character features with modern convenience.

Enjoying an abundance of natural light throughout, the property features impressive room dimensions rarely found in comparable apartments. High ceilings, large bay windows and decorative fireplaces create a sense of space and character, whilst the well-maintained interior offers comfortable, ready-to-move-into accommodation.

The property briefly comprises a welcoming entrance hall, a generous bay-fronted lounge ideal for relaxing and entertaining, a well-equipped fitted kitchen with a range of modern units and integrated cooking appliances, a substantial double bedroom providing ample space for additional furniture or a home-working area, and a large bathroom fitted with a white suite including a bath with shower over.

The apartment further benefits from useful loft storage space together with a separate boiler/store room, providing practical storage solutions often lacking in town centre properties.

Situated within reach of Scarborough's extensive range of shops, cafés, restaurants, leisure facilities, railway station and the town's famous seafront attractions, this property offers an enviable lifestyle opportunity for owner-occupiers and investors alike.

Whether purchased as a first home, holiday retreat, buy-to-let investment or downsizing opportunity, this charming apartment represents a chance to acquire a spacious period property in a good location for access to all facilities.
