Council Tax Band: A

A beautifully presented period semi-detached home, offering deceptively spacious accommodation and an abundance of character, ideally situated within easy reach of the town centre, mainline railway station and the seafront.

Full of warmth, charm and original features, this elegant home perfectly blends timeless period character with modern everyday living. From the moment you step inside, the property immediately impresses with its high ceilings, decorative cornicing, feature fireplaces, stained glass detailing and attractive internal doors, creating a home of real personality and appeal.

The ground floor offers wonderfully versatile living space, comprising an inviting entrance porch and welcoming hallway, a stunning bay-fronted living room filled with natural light, a separate dining room ideal for entertaining, and a spacious fitted kitchen/breakfast room forming the heart of the home. To the rear, the beautifully established garden provides a peaceful and private outdoor retreat, with mature planting and attractive seating areas creating the perfect space to relax and unwind.

Upstairs, the property continues to impress with two generous double bedrooms, a useful study/home office ideal for modern hybrid working, and a spacious family bathroom.

Externally, the house enjoys attractive kerb appeal with off-street parking to the front, whilst the delightful rear garden enjoys a high degree of privacy and further enhances the home's tranquil setting.

Perfectly positioned for convenient access to local shops, cafés and everyday amenities, the property is also within easy reach of the nearby railway station, offering excellent transport connections, whilst the seafront and beach are just a short distance away.
