Turn the key and move straight in: Charming Victorian End-Terrace with Thoughtful Restoration & Side Access to Rear Garden and Bright Hobbyspace Garage – in William Street, Oxford

A must view beautifully restored Victorian end-of-terrace blends timeless character with modern enhancements. Set in a peaceful cul-de-sac street with a strong community and within easy walking and cycling distance of both universities, City centre and a short walk to the JR hospital.

A walking and cycle route connects across the River Cherwell straight to central Oxford, additionally the home benefits from many close-by delightful walking routes to the University parks, Marston Meadows, Milham Ford Nature Park, Headington Hill and South Parks.

The house features sanded wooden floors, a striking bay window, and meticulous restoration throughout.

The home offers two spacious bedrooms, a kitchen filled with natural light, and a lovely garden leading to a large 'self-heating' glass-roofed bright, dry and partially insulated hobbyspace-garage at
