14 Hardwick Close, Ripley, DE5 3SR

£1,300 Per Month

Matthew Thomas brings to the lettings market this property nestled in the charming area of Hardwick Close, Ripley. This delightful four-bedroom detached house offers a perfect blend of comfort and convenience. With a spacious main reception room the property is ideal for both relaxation and entertaining guests. The second reception room has space for a dining table or could be used as a snug/gaming room. There's also a useful downstairs W.C.

Upstairs there are four good size bedrooms and a family bathroom, and the property also boasts a garage; providing additional storage or parking options; along with space for two/three vehicles on the driveway. Amber Heights is a sought-after location, and is known for its good transport links which make commuting and travel a breeze.

Whether you are heading to nearby towns or exploring the beautiful countryside, this home offers the perfect base. Available at the end of June, this property presents an excellent opportunity for families or professionals seeking a spacious and well-located home in Ripley.
