Title register restrictions (CL345546):

- The owner is not allowed to sell or transfer the property without the written consent of Barclays Bank UK PLC. This is a standard requirement to ensure the mortgage is settled.

- The lease contains 'alienation' clauses, which means there are restrictions on the owner's ability to sell, sub-let, or share the property without following specific procedures.

- The owner is under a legal obligation to give back (surrender) the lease to the landlord if certain conditions occur as described in the lease.

- There are restrictive covenants in a Transfer dated 21 March 2018, which are rules that prevent the owner from carrying out certain activities on the land.

- The property is subject to old rules and reservations mentioned in a 1946 deed, which refers back to a 1921 document that is no longer available.

- The 2018 Transfer includes a rule that prevents certain informal rights from automatically becoming permanent legal rights.

Non-coal mining area: yes
