DESCRIPTION

Being sold for the first time in 22 years is this substantial Victorian period town house, with many original features including tiled flooring, timber doors, high ceilings, picture rails and fireplace now housing a wood burning stove. The characterful accommodation, which is double glazed and gas fired centrally heated, briefly comprises; Entrance porch entrance hall with original tiled floor, superb 25ft double aspect lounge/dining room with marble style fireplace housing woodburning stove, kitchen/breakfast room with attractive traditionally fitted kitchen, boasting granite worktops, belfast sink and incorporating a range cooker. From here a door leads to the rear courtyard terrace and gardens. On the first floor a split landing gives access to 4 bedrooms, 3 being doubles, 1 single bedroom and a family bathroom. The property was rewired in 2018 and re-roofed with loft fully insulated and boarded in 2010.

Outside, there is a small area of garden to the front with a pathway to the side giving access to a gate into the rear courtyard being composite decked, together with a useful brick built store shed and steps up to a lawned garden boasting many mature shrubs and a wood store.

LOCATION

Conveniently located near the end of this sought after residential area of Launceston and within easy walking distance of the social, commercial and shopping facilities of the town centre. Close at hand is the secondary school, Launceston College and the main park with Leisure Centre including swimming pool and squash courts.

The town shopping facilities include quirky independent shops with a monthly butter market selling local crafts and produce, together with big names such as Marks & Spencer Food Hall, Tesco, Iceland, Argos and Pets at Home on the outskirts. The town's skyline is dominated by the ruins of a Norman castle that stands high on a hillside with dramatic views over Bodmin moor and Dartmoor. The castle was a strategically important building after the Norman Conquest and its green was used for executions until the 19th century.

Launceston is situated between the north and south coasts, so is convenient for beaches and the Cornish countryside. The surrounding area offers leisure for all types including two golf courses and Roadford Lake Country Park where visitors can fish, sail, windsurf, cycle, row, kayak and camp. The A30 is adjacent to the town and will see you onto the M5 at Exeter in under 45 minutes and the A388 will get you to Plymouth in under an hour. The seaside resort of Bude is just 17 miles away. The nearest mainline train stations can be found in Gunnislake and Liskeard, being approximately 16 and 20 miles respectively from Launceston.
