Description:

Full of charm and warmth, this delightful two-bedroom cottage in Delabole is the kind of home that instantly makes you feel welcome. The moment you step through the door, the cosy sitting room with its glowing log burner sets the tone — a space made for curling up with a book or enjoying quiet evenings by the fire. The kitchen is just as inviting, beautifully updated yet retaining its character, with another log burner creating a true heart of the home where family and friends can gather.

Upstairs, two generous double bedrooms provide calm and comfort, while the light-filled bathroom has a clean, contemporary finish — a peaceful place to start and end the day.

Outside, the story continues. The cottage garden at the front is brimming with charm, while the rear courtyard feels wonderfully private, complete with two outbuildings — one cleverly designed as a utility, the other transformed into a snug, fully insulated office. Beyond lies a larger garden, a hidden treasure with space to grow your own produce, a summer house for lazy afternoons, and endless scope to make it your own little sanctuary.

This is more than just a house — it's a home full of character, ready for someone to fall in love with.

Location:

Delabole is a traditional Cornish village situated on the dramatic north coast of Cornwall, best known for its historic slate quarry, which has been central to the community for centuries. Surrounded by rolling countryside and close to the spectacular coastal scenery near Tintagel and Port Isaac, the village combines a strong sense of heritage with a welcoming local community.
