Floor Area - 1302.00 sq ft

Having been built in 2003 and positioned in a quiet cul-de-sac, this detached family home is larger than average. Offered with no onward chain, a motivated seller, this house is worth viewing. The village of Warbstow is a popular and sought after Cornish spot within walking distance of an excellent primary school. Having had a new combination boiler in 2022 and with full double glazing the accommodation briefly comprises; Entrance Hall, Cloakroom, attractively fitted Kitchen/Breakfast Room with door to the garden, generous lounge enjoying superb views to the front across countryside and Dartmoor beyond, dining room with patio doors to the rear gardens. On the first floor a quirky port hole window enjoys the views, with 3 good sized bedrooms, one with en suite shower room, together with a family bathroom. Outside, to the front of the property is a brick paved drive with an allocated parking space for one car and a driveway for a further car, giving access to a single garage. The rear gardens are tiered with lawned areas bordered by mature flowering shrubs and borders. The garden to the side houses the outside boiler and oil storage tank.

LOCATION

Situated in the heart of this popular Cornish village and only a short walk away from amenities which include a County Primary School and Community Centre which runs a pre-school nursery, fitness sessions, badminton etc. At the nearby village of Hallworthy which is three miles away there is a Public House, a filling station and a small shop. The towns of Camelford (9 miles), Bude and Launceston (13 miles) with the latter having a comprehensive range of shopping, commercial, educational and recreational facilities and lies adjacent to the A30 trunk road giving access to Truro and West Cornwall in one direction and Exeter and beyond in the opposite direction. Approximately 8 miles is a stunning stretch of the North Cornish coastline featuring popular family surfing beaches such as Crackington Haven, quaint former fishing villages such as Boscastle, sections of superb National Trust cliff scenery and remarkable places of interest such as Tintagel with ancient coastal hill fort. Warbstow is close to the wonderful open spaces of Bodmin Moor ideal for walking and riding. To the south and east the hidden Tamar valley steeped in 18th century mining history and is known for salmon fishing.
