DESCRIPTION

This delightful detached family home will appeal to a variety of buyers including those looking for a bolt hole or potential for airbnb, being so close to North Cornwall's rugged coastline and spectacular beaches. Built, we believe, around 1840 as a Chapel and then a school, the current vendors have greatly improved the spacious accommodation on offer, which is double glazed and oil fired centrally heated throughout. As you enter the property the front entrance porch has an ecclesiastical feel with high arched entrance and timber entrance doors into the hallway, throughout are many period features such as high ceilings, exposed wide timber floorboards and deep window sills. The entrance hall then leads to a separate dining room which could be utilised as a study or bedroom 4. A large lounge with feature brick fireplace housing woodburning stove, kitchen/breakfast room and a useful rear porch leading to outside. All the ground floor principle rooms are double aspect. On the first floor a generous landing gives access to three sizeable double bedrooms and a family bathroom with shower and bath. Outside, access to the side leads to a courtyard garden, ideal for al fresco dining and incorporating two useful stone outbuildings, perfect for storage of water sport equipment such as surfboards and general storage, one housing the oil fired boiler and one houses the oil storage tank. At the front of the property, set back is a further useful small store shed.

In all, due to its location, this property will appeal to those looking for a family home being convenient to the towns of Bude, Holsworthy and Launceston, or for those looking for a second home, bolt hole, or airbnb/guest house. Offered with no onward chain.

LOCATION

Situated in the heart of this small hamlet of Grimscott with a strong community, village hall and playground, being only 6 miles from Bude, a bustling coastal town with a wide range of shopping and recreational facilities, together with schools for all ages. Summerleaze, Crooklets and Widemouth Bay are spectacular cornish surfing beaches with Sandymouth Bay, worthy of a visit. Kilkhampton is the nearest self-contained vilage offering various shops including a Butcher, small supermarket, public houses and post office. Tamar Lakes is within a short drive offering scenic walks and a variety of water sports. Nearby town of Holsworthy is just 7 miles, the port and market town of Bideford is some 26 miles providing convenient access to the A39 north Devon link road which connects in turn to Barnstaple, Tiverton and the M5 motorway. Launceston is only 16 miles connecting you to the A30 and into Cornwall.
