Olive Leaf lettings are pleased to offer this 2 bedroomed split level first & second floor top quality apartment in Edinburgh House, an iconic building in the heart of Market Harborough,, Edinburgh House being the former home of Golden Wonder.

The centre is dominated by the town's 14th-c ironstone church, with its impressive broach spire. Alongside this stands the town's old Grammar School. A charming half-timbered and gabled building, gifted by local boy Robert Smythe, in 1613. The school is supported above the street on sturdy wooden pillars, under the cool shade of which a butter market was once held. The ornamental gables and pargeting date from 1869.

Olive Leaf lettings are pleased to offer this large 1 bedroomed split level first & second floor luxury apartment at Edinburgh House in the heart of Market Harborough with full gas central heating.
