A charming two-bedroom terraced home with a delightful cottage feel, ideally situated close to Congleton Park and the town centre.
We are delighted to market this beautifully presented two-bedroom terraced house, offering a warm and welcoming cottage-style feel in a convenient residential location within Congleton, Cheshire.
Situated just a few minutes' walk from the beautifully maintained Congleton Park, with the town centre also within easy reach, the property offers an excellent balance of peaceful surroundings and everyday convenience.
Internally, the property provides two generously proportioned bedrooms, two spacious reception rooms, a well-appointed kitchen and a family bathroom, offering versatile accommodation that would suit a variety of tenants.
The two reception rooms provide excellent flexibility, whether used as separate living and dining spaces, a home office or simply additional living accommodation. The property's characterful feel, combined with its generous room sizes, gives it a particularly homely appeal.
