Stuarts Homes welcome back to the market this stunning two-bedroom terrace in Cheadle. With stylish décor throughout, this home offers an inviting and well-presented living space. The first reception room is tastefully decorated and enjoys a warm, cosy atmosphere, perfect for relaxing or entertaining. There is a spacious kitchen comprising an electric oven, electric hob, dishwasher, washing machine and under-counter fridge all included, and thanks to its generous size it comfortably serves as a dining room. The rear yard is gravelled and very low maintenance, providing ample space for garden furniture and further benefiting from a shed for additional storage. To the upper floor there is one well-proportioned double bedroom with fitted wardrobes offering plenty of storage, along with a second bedroom which is smaller in size but would still accommodate a double bed. The bathroom is finished with a white suite and benefits from an over-bath shower, completing this appealing home. Council Tax Band B. EPC Band D.
