

Ainger Road

London NW3 3AH

£3,350,000

In the same ownership since 1969, a substantial five storey period house, forming part of a historic terrace, in a prime Primrose Hill location in which whole houses rarely come to the open market.

Replete with period features, the accommodation extends to 2711 square feet, arranged for multi-generational living over five floors, with a charming, mature west-facing garden.

In need of modernisation, the property affords an opportunity to create a wonderful, elegant family home.

Ainger Rd is a tranquil and perfectly-situated residential side turning, directly opposite the open space of Primrose Hill, and within a moments' walk of the Shops, cafes and restaurants of Primrose Hill village. The nearest Underground station is Chalk Farm (Northern Line)

Sold freehold with full vacant possession, the property is currently inhabited as two separate dwellings, both with individual Council Tax status.
