Summary of Accommodation

About the property

Nant Y Coed is a truly delightful home, kept in exceptional order and in "move in ready", immaculate condition. In recent years the property has been thoughtfully developed to provide the spacious family accommodation it is boasts. An entrance porch leads into a particularly spacious central ground floor hallway from which doors radiate into all the ground floor rooms while a staircase leads to the first floor. A ground floor WC is neatly tucked away off the hall. Looking to the front elevation are two separate reception rooms, both with bay windows and plantation shutters. They are currently used as a study and a playroom respectively and are suitable for many and varied uses. To the rear of the property and running the width of the house is a wonderful family space, an open plan kitchen/living/dining space. Bi-fold doors look out over – and open onto – a broad flagstone-paved patio enjoying a sunny, westerly aspect. The distinct kitchen includes a superb range of units with appliances, where fitted, to remain and including 'Bosch' induction hob, twin ovens flanking a microwave, fully integrated dishwasher, washing machine, twin fridges and twin freezers. To the heart of the kitchen is a central island and breakfast bar. This luxurious kitchen is open to a dining and living area from which there are bi-fold doors open to the garden. This is an absolutely wonderful family space with lantern lights over to provide additional illumination.

To the first floor a landing area has doors leading to 4 double bedrooms and to the family bathroom. The principal bedroom is a good double with its own walk-in wardrobe and en suite shower room. The 3 other bedrooms all share use of a luxurious family bathroom with twin hand basins, bath and separate corner shower cubicle. A fixed staircase leads to a guest suite to the attic comprising bedroom area and en suite shower room.

Garden & Grounds

From the Gwern Y Steeple lane, a broad pull-in leads to the driveway parking area fronting the property. There is ample room here for a number of cars to park and turn. There is access to the entrance porch from here while flagstone-paving runs to the side of the property through a gated entrance and into the rear garden. The rear garden is a particularly generous area with an extensive flagstone-paved patio seating area accessed from the kitchen/living/dining space. A flowerbed has a central path opening from the patio onto a considerably larger garden. This level lawn has a superb, sunny westerly aspect and will catch the afternoon and evening sunlight.
