Summary of Accommodation

About the Property

Situated in the highly desirable village of Colwinston, this vacant property presents a rare opportunity for those looking to create a bespoke family home in a sought-after rural setting. Although the house requires significant refurbishment and modernisation, it offers a blank canvas with considerable scope to extend, reconfigure, and enhance to suit a wide range of lifestyles.

The current accommodation includes two well-proportioned reception rooms, a kitchen/diner, family bathroom, and a small conservatory leading from the main living room. Upstairs, the property offers three generously sized bedrooms, providing ample space for a growing family.

With generous room sizes, excellent natural light, and a flexible layout, the potential to transform this property is clear — whether through internal redesign or external extension (subject to the necessary consents). Offered with no onward chain, this is an ideal opportunity for those seeking a project with the potential to add

Garden & Grounds

To the rear of the property lies a particularly large, south-facing garden — a true highlight of this home. It is rich with established planting and vibrant seasonal colour, featuring a variety of beautiful flowers and plants. Mature apple and quince trees add to the charm and character of the outdoor space, while offering fruit in season.

The garden provides not only a tranquil retreat but also excellent potential for landscaping, entertaining areas, or extending the property's footprint. A single garage provides secure parking or useful storage.
