Summary of Accommodation

ABOUT THE PROPERTY

From its gated entrance, a central pathway runs through the front garden to the central door which opens into a large welcoming hallway. The hallway connects to the two reception rooms and kitchen, and offers plenty of character throughout to include exposed timber beams, a mix of original flagstone and timber flooring and a medieval stone staircase leads to the first floor landing. There is also a central inglenook fireplace with dual-sided log burning stove connecting to the sitting room.

Typical of the 'Welsh Long house', both family reception rooms overlook the surrounding gardens with double timber doors providing access out onto the rear flagstone patio. The two reception rooms are both generous sizes, each with their own beautiful exposed stone chimney breasts with wood burning stoves. From the larger lounge, there is an additional stone staircase which leads to the bedroom above.

To the rear of the property, and to the heart of this character-filled home, sits the spacious family kitchen/dining room. A superb, quality, bespoke fitted kitchen with solid oak base units offering a range of integral appliances to remain to include; dishwasher, a 4-ring gas hob with oven and grill beneath, and also a large freestanding triple oven Aga to remain, nestled into an exposed brick chimney with tiled backplate. This kitchen/dining room has exposed beams with flagstone flooring and provides access out to the rear patio and sheltered courtyard, seamlessly connecting indoor/outdoor entertaining. There are windows to all aspects providing plenty of natural light to this fantastic family space. There is also a neat cloakroom / WC tucked here.

The large landing enjoys superb views over south-facing Vale countryside. There are five sizeable bedrooms, two en-suites and a superb family bathroom fitted with a quality 5-piece suite to include; roll-top central bath positioned directly beneath the window, dual sinks and separate shower with marble-effect tiled walls.

GARDENS AND GROUNDS

Ty Uchaf sits in the centre of this reputable village, surrounded by countryside, enjoying well-maintained and exceptionally large gardens totaling just under half an acre. This fully enclosed garden offers double gates leading onto a cobbled driveway providing ample off-road private parking which leads to a triple garage with room above (potential for use as a granny annex/additional accommodation subject to the necessary planning restrictions). The garden offers a good degree of privacy with tall trees, and a lovely sheltered courtyard is ideal for al-fresco dining with access directly from the main living space and kitchen. The rest of the garden is laid to lawn with mature shrubs and planted borders. The Calor gas tank is located to the side of the garden.
