Summary of Accommodation

ABOUT THE PROPERTY

Henstaff Mews, an original agricultural building, dates back to the mid-1800s and has undergone a superb conversion in the early 1990s. This converted barn offers substantial accommodation over 2,700 sq ft and provides a wonderful combination of countryside surroundings and convenient village living. Occupying a peaceful rural position within this sought-after gated setting on the outskirts of Groesfaen, this unique home combines traditional features with generous modern living space.

The ground floor provides a welcoming entrance hall with a neat 2-piece cloakroom, and a staircase with understairs closet leads to the first floor. Double doors open into the impressive lounge which is filled with natural light and centres around a large freestanding log burner. Adjacent to the lounge is an exceptional garden room overlooking the rear garden, with countryside views beyond. This room enjoys a vaulted ceiling with skylights and offers much versatility as a formal dining space or family-play room. The kitchen/breakfast room is located just off the hallway and offers an excellent range of quality units with granite surfaces, with ample space for breakfast table and chairs. A range of integrated appliances to remain to include; fridge/freezer, additional undercounter freezer, washing machine, dishwasher and electric oven with hob. From here a stable-style door leads to the side courtyard with garage beyond. A particularly valuable feature is the adjoining home office, which benefits from its own independent front and rear entrances, vaulted ceiling with exposed beam and cloakroom - making it ideal for home working or potential to incorporate into the main residence - subject to necessary consents.

To the first floor are four double bedrooms, including a principal bedroom with panoramic views, fitted wardrobes and en-suite cloakroom. The second en-suite bedroom benefits from a 3-piece bathroom with fitted wardrobes and farm field views. A separate modern family bathroom serves the remaining bedrooms.

GARDENS AND GROUNDS

Externally, the property enjoys a well-landscaped rear garden with wonderful countryside views beyond. To the front, a shared road leads to the off-road parking underneath a brick archway, while a spacious detached double garage with ample storage space and is located just off the courtyard with electric-remote controlled door and provides parking inside for two cars, and a pedestrian door links to the westerly courtyard. The south-facing garden offers a substantial paved terrace, lawn and mature shrubs and is ideal for relaxing with the glorious countryside views surrounding the garden.
