Summary of Accommodation

ABOUT THE PROPERTY

The house itself is built via a non-traditional construction where the property is within an agricultural barn, adjoining a storage outbuilding. The house itself comprises of a single story property, with 3 Bedrooms, one of which is set on a mezzanine. Planning permission was granted by Caerphilly Council for the dwelling with the reference 07/0006/CLPU. On entering the property you are greeted with an open plan living room and kitchen, with two bedrooms adjoining and WC.

To the south of the house there is a large agricultural barn, previously used for storage and housing livestock, the barn itself measures approximately 533sqm. This is all set within approximately 28.04 acres of agricultural land, being a combination of permanent pasture and rough grazing. The pasture is divided into several individual parcels. The land is considered predominately stock proof with boundaries primarily comprising of stock fencing.

SITUATION

The property, set in a picturesque village community with rural charm, adjoins the affluent community of Lisvane, which is situated only 5 miles north of Cardiff city centre, with close links to the M4 Corridor, and easily accessible to Cardiff and Newport, perfect for commuters.
