The lounge seamlessly links into the impressive kitchen, which is a sizeable area, including a run of handmade, quality oak units to two sides and complementary solid marble worktops. Several integral appliances to remain to include; double oven, with grill, 5-ring gas hob, micro, fridge and dishwasher. One cupboard houses the recently installed gas-combi boiler. There remains ample room for a family size dining table, and double uPVC doors lead directly onto the flagstone patio. The kitchen-dining space has been fitted with monochrome floor tiles, and has the benefit of a walk-in utility/larder cupboard with space/plumbing for a washing machine and offers further storage.

The hallway also leads into a second reception room, which is ideal as a family space / playroom with additional area to the rear of this room for a home office.

To the first floor, all four bedrooms are double rooms with their own fitted wardrobes, with three of these rooms positioned to enjoy views over the adjoining fields and farmland. The largest bedroom, is a generous room with the benefit of its own en-suite bathroom fitted with a contemporary suite and marble-effect tiles.
