About the Local Area – Crowland

About the Local Area – Crowland

Crowland offers a wonderful blend of historic charm and modern convenience, making it popular with families, professionals, and retirees alike. The town is rich in history, with landmarks dating back over 1000 years, and is well-positioned between Peterborough and Spalding, offering excellent transport links and access to mainline rail services.

Local amenities include a fantastic range of traditional shops (such as a butcher, baker, and hardware store) alongside modern conveniences including mini-supermarkets, pubs, restaurants, takeaways, hairdressers, beauticians, and the area's best fish and chip shop! Healthcare needs are met with a local doctor's surgery and pharmacy, and education is well catered for with a newly built primary school and good secondary schooling options via bus links to Spalding and Peterborough.

Crowland also boasts plenty of open green spaces, perfect for walkers and cyclists, and a wide variety of community groups and activities, ensuring a warm welcome to newcomers.

A truly delightful town to call home.
