Summary

A Rare Riverside Opportunity in a Sought-After Location

Tucked away on a peaceful private road, this charming south-facing detached bungalow enjoys a prime position along the scenic River Glen. Just two miles from the bustling market town of Spalding—famous for its annual Flower Festival—and 20 miles from the cathedral city of Peterborough, the property combines a tranquil setting with excellent accessibility.

Set within a completely private garden, the home boasts an impressive 48ft mooring frontage complete with a quay, perfect for enjoying the river lifestyle. From here, you can navigate through the local sluice to connect with the Inland Waterway System via the River Welland and Boston Lock. Adding a touch of elegance, the sale includes a beautiful mahogany launch, ideal for leisurely trips to two nearby riverside pubs.

Accommodation includes:

Lounge/Diner (5.56m x 3.35m) – Open plan, sliding doors to the conservatory.

Conservatory (3.84m x 3.35m) – Double doors to the rear, multiple aspect windows.

Kitchen (2.11m x 5.51m) – Triple aspect windows, storage cupboard.

Bedroom 1 (3.30m x 2.62m) – Side window, storage cupboard.

Bedroom 2 (2.16m x 3.15m) – Front window, bi-fold door.

Bathroom (2.11m x 2.62m) – Front window.

Externally, there's a detached garage with an adjoining workshop, plus two car ports offering ample off-road parking.

Please note: This property is of non-standard construction and is therefore available to cash buyers only. Several neighbouring homes have been redeveloped into larger family residences, presenting an excellent opportunity to significantly increase value in this highly desirable setting.
