Description

A beautifully presented detached bungalow with stunning open field views, a south-facing garden and an impressive range of outbuildings.

Sedge Estate Agents are delighted to offer this superbly maintained two-bedroom detached bungalow, ideally positioned in a peaceful semi-rural setting in Gosberton Risegate.

The property offers two double bedrooms, a spacious lounge, recently fitted kitchen/diner, bright garden room/conservatory, utility room, cloakroom and modern shower room.

Outside, the property really comes into its own, with two separate driveways providing excellent off-road parking, a substantial 28ft garage/workshop, additional storage and a fully insulated home office/summerhouse – perfect for working from home, hobbies or simply enjoying your own space.

The south-facing rear garden is low maintenance and beautifully established, with mature shrubs, raised decking, outdoor lighting and a superb open outlook over the surrounding fields.

Located within easy reach of Gosberton's amenities and approximately 9 miles from Spalding, this is an ideal opportunity for anyone seeking a quieter lifestyle without being isolated.

With its combination of countryside views, versatile outside space, generous parking and excellent presentation, this is far more than your average two-bedroom bungalow.

Early viewing is highly recommended.

Agents Note: The property is of single-brick, non-standard construction and is fully insulated to regulations. Prospective purchasers should make their own enquiries regarding mortgageability and insurance.
