Aldreds are delighted to offer this stunning three-bedroom period detached property located in the peaceful village of Burgh St Peters. The property enjoys a quiet rural setting while still providing convenient access to nearby towns including Norwich, Beccles, and Great Yarmouth. The village offers a welcoming community atmosphere with scenic countryside walks, an active village hall, and a traditional village pub. This impressive period home provides spacious and versatile accommodation. The ground floor features a central entrance hall with a striking galleried staircase and a convenient ground floor WC. To the right of the entrance hall is a comfortable lounge, which leads into an open-plan family room. To the left is a generous dining room that opens into a well-designed open-plan kitchen. On the first floor, the property offers a central galleried landing, three double bedrooms, a family bathroom, and a separate WC. The current owners have maintained and improved the property to a high standard while preserving many of its original period features, including sealed unit double-glazed sash windows.

Externally, the property benefits from a large front area with ample off-road parking, along with side and spacious rear gardens. The total plot extends to approximately one-fifth of an acre. Properties in this desirable and peaceful village location rarely come onto the market, and early viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate this exceptional period residence.
