FULL DESCRIPTION

Apartment 111, is a modern first floor apartment, with a spacious internal floor plan being one of the larger within this popular building.

Available immediately on a part furnished basis.

Accessed via a communal entrance with a telecom secure entry system and CCTV. Both stairs and a lifts lead to all floors throughout the building.

Internally the property is neutrally decorated throughout with a generous open plan, lounge/kitchen diner. The lounge area has a corner sofa, dining table with chairs and the kitchen enjoys a range of shaker wall and floor units and integrated appliances. There are two bedrooms and a fully tiled bathroom suite with bath and shower.

Within the complex there is an enclosed, open-top communal courtyard located on the first floor.

The property is heated with an electric central heating system and has UPVC double glazing throughout.

Park Tower is a Grade II listed historical landmark, originally constructed in 1915 as the former North Eastern Co-operative department store. It was converted into 50 residential apartments in 2008.

Sure to prove popular, therefore early reservation is strongly recommended to avoid disappointment.

PROPERTY LOCATION

The building occupies a prominent corner at the junction of Park Road and Stockton Street, providing easy access to local amenities:
