The Detail

Occupying a desirable position on Beamhill Road, Stretton, Burton-on-Trent, this beautifully extended 1930s-style detached dormer bungalow blends charming period detail with generous, modern family living arranged over two floors.

Entry is via a uPVC double glazed porch into a welcoming hallway, where a traditional panelled door with leaded and stained glass detailing sets the tone. Contemporary engineered oak doors lead to the principal rooms, while a staircase rises to the first floor. The spacious living room features a limestone fireplace with inset coal-effect gas fire and French doors opening onto the rear garden, flowing seamlessly through glazed oak doors into the stunning open-plan dining kitchen. Here, cream high-gloss units, black quartz worktops, integrated Bosch & Siemens appliances and a central island create a superb sociable space, with further French doors to the garden and access to a utility room and WC. Two bay-fronted double bedrooms and a stylish shower room complete the ground floor.

Stairs from the entrance hallway lead to the first floor landing which provides a useful study area. The landing proves access to three further bedrooms and contemporary family bathroom. The most spacious primary bedroom suite has fitted wardrobes and contemporary en-suite shower room.

Externally, the property is set back from the road in an elevated position, enjoying a generous block-paved driveway that provides off-road parking for approximately six vehicles. This leads to a single attached garage with a remote-controlled electric roller door and an EV charging point. The garage benefits from power and lighting, hot & cold taps and radiator, along with rear access to the substantial enclosed rear garden.

The enclosed rear garden is generously proportioned and features a spacious Indian sandstone patio, which steps down to a large lawned area with raised planting beds and well-stocked shrub borders. There are also two timber-framed sheds and an aluminium-framed greenhouse.
