The Detail

This stunning Grade II listed property on Weston Road is set in the heart of the highly sought after South Derbyshire village of Aston on Trent. This property is a striking example of thoughtful remodelling that harmonises traditional features with contemporary design. This property offers stylish living accommodation over three floors that has been comprehensively upgraded by the current vendors and retains a wealth of character and charm.

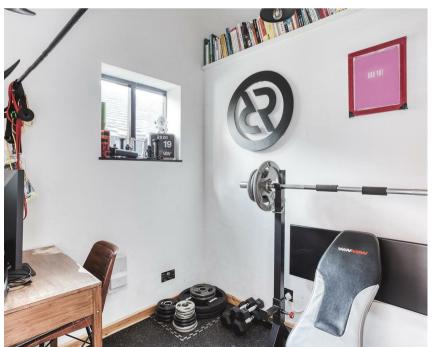

Upon entering, the ground floor presents an inviting open-plan living area, complete with a feature fireplace with a slate hearth and a cast iron log burner, perfect for cosy evenings. The kitchen is equally impressive, with its two-tone panelled units, copper handles, and marble-effect work surfaces, complemented by integrated appliances such as an electric oven, induction hob, and slimline dishwasher. Herringbone walnut wood flooring runs throughout the living area and kitchen area enhancing the space's warmth and character.

The first floor features a spacious primary bedroom, highlighted with bespoke built-in wardrobes with a handleless design and a cast iron fireplace. The bathroom on this level is beautifully appointed with brass-effect shower fittings, a stainless steel sink set in a teak vanity, and underfloor heating, adding to the sense of luxury. The second floor offers two further well proportioned bedrooms, each with exposed brick walls, engineered oak flooring and there is a modern well appointed shower room.

Outside, a charming brick and blue-brick courtyard leads to a separate outbuilding that can serve as a home office or gym, adding versatility to the property. There is shared pathway access to a further outbuilding/store and a garden area offering a tranquil escape with a lawned area and a raised timber decked seating area.
